CANDIDATES ARE NAMED TO BE VOTED ON AT PRIMARIES TO BE HELD AUGUST 8

CANDIDATES CHOSEN BY A MASS MEETING

Democrats of Bisbee Select Seven Party Men to Be Balloted Upon at Primary.

ODD FELLOWS' HALL CROWDED TO CAPACITY

Enthusiasm Displayed When Ringing Speeches Are Made by Leaders.

Twenty-seven candidates were selected by a mass meeting of democrats that filled Odd Fellows' hall to its capacity last night to be balloted upon at the primary August 8, for selection as representatives of Bisbee at the Douglas convention of the party.

The meeting was in every way truly democratic, each question arising being fully discussed, and the opinions of every one listened to. Before the decision was reached by the gathering a carefully counted vote was taken to determine the wishes of the whole.

Every effort was made to insure the selection of delegates who received the highest number of votes from their fellow democrats. Even the several wards of the city were given their quota of delegates so that there might not be a preponderance of representation from any one ward. The first and third wards were allowed ten delegates each and the second ward which is smaller was allowed seven delegates.

The meeting was called to order promptly at eight o'clock and J. M. O'Connell was unanimously elected permanent chairman. He opened the meeting with an able address in which he stated its purposes, and made a strong plea, urging the necessity of earnest and united action. He impressed upon the meeting the fact that this was to be a mass gathering in the broadest sense of the word that every democrat present was to have a hearing and a voice in the selection of the delegates.

The chairman was frequently interrupted in his address by applause which indicated that the assemblage was in full accord with his remarks and gave them its enthusiastic endorsement.

H. W. Thomas and O. S. French were then named as secretaries, and were unanimously elected.

Secretary Thomas read that part of the governor's proclamation which referred to the election of delegates to the primary convention and stated that the democrats of Bisbee were entitled to twenty-seven delegates to the county convention to be held at Douglas on August 20, which twenty-seven were to be selected at the primary election on August 8.

A motion was made and seconded that the meeting proceed to elect the twenty-seven delegates. This motion was amended to read that ten delegates be chosen from the first ward, seven from the second ward and ten from the third ward. The meeting then proceeded to nominate candidates from the several wards.

When about fifty candidates had been nominated a motion was made and seconded that the nominations be closed and the meeting proceed to ballot. This motion was carried and after a careful count of the ballots the result was announced by the secretary as follows:

First ward, Lee Ross J. F. McDonald, J. J. Harrington, Steve Bradish, Thos. Feeney, J. S. Williams, J. J. Scott, L. G. Gilman, J. J. White and Gus Hickey.

Second ward J. H. Gannon, Thos. Dolan, M. C. Benton, A. Murray, J. James, Wm. Robinson and E. R. Wallace.

Third ward J. R. Henderson, M. Newman, M. J. Cunningham, F. J. Vaughan, Sam Briscoe, Jos. McKee, J. W. Hogan, W. Goslin, Daniel Seed and Pat O'Donnell.

After the announcement of the successful candidates the meeting enthusiastically endorsed them as the unanimous choice of Bisbee democracy. A motion made by Dr. N. C. Hildebrand that upon petition of twenty-five democrats the name of any democrat may be added to this list was voted down and it was unanimously decided that the twenty-seven names of delegates selected be placed upon the ballot. After a few short rousing speeches were made the meeting adjourned.

SUE FOR RIGHT TO EXHIBIT FIGHT PICTURES
CHICAGO, July 30.—A man-damus suit has been begun against the chief of police and mayor asking that they be compelled to issue a permit for them to exhibit fight pictures was filed by Aaron Jones and George C. Spoor. They assert that they paid sixty thousand dollars for the local rights until March, 1911. The police confiscated four thousand feet of films of the Johnson-Jeffries exhibition from their amusement program.

LOWELL NAMES EIGHTEEN.
A large and enthusiastic mass meeting of Lowell democracy was held last evening in Brophy's hall for the purpose of selecting delegates to be voted for at the primaries on August 8th to represent Lowell at the Douglas convention. William Graham presided and W. D. Evans served as secretary. After a few short speeches the meeting proceeded to ballot for delegates. Eighteen names were chosen from among which the eleven to which Lowell is entitled will be elected at the primaries. The eighteen names are as follows: William Graham, L. R. Bailey, John B. Hart, O. E. Murphy, Carl Carlson, Mike Han-non, Lawrence Skochick, W. D. Evans, Frank Huckleby, Richard Humphrey, M. J. Sullivan, Wm. Far-ral, J. N. Oiler, Frank Travers, L. I. Wallace, Morris Marks, J. H. Kapels and Jas. E. Brophy.

After the election of delegates had been made and unanimously endorsed, a meeting of the Lowell democratic club followed, and amidst the greatest enthusiasm, almost every democrat present enrolled himself as a member of the club. It is the intention of this club to conduct an active and aggressive campaign and to thoroughly enthrone the younger element in the party. For this purpose, smokers and other forms of entertainment will be given from time to time and no opportunity will be lost to make this the most effective, enthusiastic and successful campaign ever conducted by the democracy of Lowell.

TOMBSTONE DEMOCRATS MEET
TOMBSTONE, Ariz., July 30.—(Special).—At the mass meeting held last evening by the democrats of Tombstone, some rousing speeches were made, showing that the party is fully aroused to the importance of a representative delegation both at the primaries and the county convention which follows.

William Hattich was elected chairman of the meeting and J. E. James secretary. Fourteen candidates were selected from which the seven delegates to which Tombstone is entitled will be chosen at the primaries, to attend the county convention.

OFFICERS ARE READY TO NAB DR. CRIPPEN

Montrose Will Arrive Off Father Point About Noon and Couple Will Be Inspected.

INSPECTOR DEW TELLS STORY OF HIS SEARCH

Went Over House Four Times Before He Located Body of Woman.

FATHER POINT, July 30.—Barring some unforeseen delay it will be known at noon tomorrow whether Crippen and the stenographer, Miss Leneve, are aboard the Montrose. She is forcing her way through a storm on the St. Lawrence and nearing this point, where Dew, with the Canadian officials wait impatiently to clamber aboard and arrest the man they believe to be the American dentist fugitive from justice charged with the murder in London of an unknown woman, thought to be the actress Belle Elmore.

Early this afternoon, Captain Kendall stated by wireless that he expected to arrive here at six o'clock Sunday morning, but later a storm coming down the river it seemed unlikely that the steamer would make the good time expected.

If the police carry out their program they will land the pair at Quebec before nine tonight. With no hitch in the arrangements after identification the prisoners will remain in jail at Quebec until Monday morning and be arraigned before Judge Panet Angers, of Quebec. Unless Crippen shows unusual resourcefulness, the Canadian police expect to place him in the hands of Dew the same day to be taken back to England on a steamship sailing from Quebec Thursday. Frederick M. Ryder, the American consul at Rimouski came to Father Point to see Dew. He has no intention of interfering with the action of the Canadian authorities but considers it his duty to be on hand in case Crippen should consider his rights as an American citizen are infringed upon. For an antidote to the interference with wireless communication between the Montrose and the local station.

Dew, in a private chat, described his discovery of the body: "I saw nothing amiss when I first went through the house," said Dew. "Although I searched each room carefully twice there was the same result. I was not satisfied. I thought I will return and test the walls. I came back a fourth time and saw nothing amiss. The cellar walls were all sound, but on striking about with an iron bar, I struck a loose brick and it fell out. Immediately there was a terrible stench.

"I instantly began to tear away the loose bricks, and under them found a mass of human flesh eaten by quicklime. Not a bone was found and I believe the murderer, with medical skill separated them from the flesh and threw them in a canal near the house."

The rumor reached here from Montreal that Crippen has committed suicide aboard the Montrose. It caused considerable uneasiness, but is absolutely without foundation.

UNCLE JOE CANNON IN KANSAS

VATICAN HOPES FOR CARLIST UPRISING SOON

Believed in Rome Present Difficulty Between Pope and Spain Offers Best Opportunity for Don Jaime.

ROME July 30.—Notwithstanding the extremely strained relations between the Vatican and the Spanish government, the recall of Marquis de Ojeda the Spanish ambassador to the Vatican produced the greatest sensation that Rome has known for years. The Vatican, in a semi-official communication says the recall of the ambassador proves that the program of Premier Canalejas is not arranged with any hope of accord but rather a desire for a fight, and the communication adds he will get it.

The Vatican officials take the darkest view of the situation, not only in Spain, but also in Portugal. Their opinion is that the extreme parties in both countries with the aid of the foreign elements, are trying to overthrow the respective monarchies with the object of uniting the Iberian Peninsula under republican rule.

In Spain, they point out, in addition to the French Free Masonic influence there is the English protestant influence exerted over the king through the Battenbergs, who have established themselves at court consequent to the king's marriage.

It is the hope of the Vatican that Don Jaime, the Carlist pretender, who threatens a revolution, will raise the Carlist flag and vindicate the Roman Catholics.

JURY STILL OUT

TOMBSTONE, July 30.—(Special).—The jury in the case of Fred Arndt, retired at 12:30 today and is still out. A jury has been selected for the trial of J. M. Murdock on the charge of perjury in connection with the Chase murder trial. This jury has been excused from service until Monday, when the trial will commence.

COTTON CARNIVAL

GALVESTON Texas July 30.—Other crops may wither and fall, but King Cotton continues to hold his sway in Texas. He had his day of glory today, with the formal opening of the Galveston Cotton Carnival and Exposition, which is to continue through the next two weeks. The exposition this year is the most pretentious affair of the kind ever given here. Besides the elaborate agricultural and other exhibits many additional attractions are to be provided in the way of street pageants, automobile races, motor boat parades and public speaking.

The American delegates have brought with them an invitation to the congress to hold its next meeting, which will take place in 1912, in the city of Philadelphia.

SIXTEEN DIE IN TEXAS RACE RIOT

DALLAS, Tex., July 30.—Advices tonight state that 15 negroes are dead and several white people wounded as the result of a riot, which has been in progress since last night near Palestine. It is reported that a number of negroes are surrounded in a thicket and further bloodshed is anticipated.

MADRID CLAIMS IS THAT HORNET IS FILABUSTER

Asks United States Not to Allow Converted Yacht to Clear Port of New Orleans Louisiana

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Counselors of the Madrid government in Nicaragua, acting on cable instructions from Managua, have filed formal protests with this government against the sailing of the Yacht Hornet, commonly reported to have been bought by the Estrada revolutionists at Norfolk last week, demand examination of the vessel now en route to New Orleans. The department of justice, it is understood, has instructed U. S. Attorney Batte of New Orleans to take such steps as appear necessary for the protection of the neutrality laws before clearance papers are issued to the Hornet. The department of commerce and labor upon the same protest, has asked that he shall not clear the ship. To the state department this is a reminder of the case of the Alabama during the civil war.

The Madrid counselors maintain that the ship has been adapted to a warlike use within the jurisdiction of the United States and has forfeited her charter as a merchant vessel, therefore cannot sail from any port in the United States without violating the neutrality laws.

When Estrada men heard of the protest they pointed out the fact to the navy department that they had moved the guns before the boat set and by that action they claim the Hornet was returned her charter as by rights peaceable and harmless.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

QUEBEC July 30.—Great preparations are being made for the entertainment of the delegates and visitors who are coming here from all parts of the United States and Canada next week for the national convention of the Knights of Columbus. Besides the usual church ceremonies and parade, there will be a banquet, a pilgrimage of the famous shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre, a reception by the lieutenant governor of the province, Hon. C. A. Pelletier, and visits to Laval University. The business sessions of the convention will begin Tuesday and continue until Friday.

MURDOCK PAYS FINAL PLEA TO KANSAS VOTERS

Congressman Puts Fight on Plane of One Against Sloth or Advance, Which He Declares Is Issue.

HOLTON, July 30.—Murdock closed his campaign in the first Kansas district with this appeal: "Is Kansas next Tuesday to keep her place in the forefront with other progressive western states, with Wisconsin, Iowa, North Dakota and Nebraska, or for the first time in forty-five years will her brilliant leadership as a state fall in with Rhode Island and Pennsylvania. Is the question. Surely there is but one answer. Kansas will keep her place in the front line. Down at Washington the machine teaches the lesson to its followers, that the people must be held in check and that it is the first business of a congressman or senator to lead the people to be an extreme conservative and not permit the people to rush him off his feet into progressive legislation.

"Insurgency, on the other hand, is a movement of the republican party which frankly admits the newer problems of national affairs and desires to approach them with open mind and apply such remedies to that whole country that it will move with dispatch into the higher form as of more perfect democracy.

DIDN'T WANT TO BE DUKE

BERLIN July 30.—A despatch from Gotha says that the ancient city was en fete today in celebration of the seventh anniversary of the accession of Charles Edward to the dual throne of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha. The youthful Duke who has just entered upon his twenty-sixth year, succeeded his uncle on the throne, July 26, 1909.

Charles Edward is a son of the late Leopold Duke of Albany and nephew of the late King Edward VII. The story has often been told of his disappointment on learning that he had been selected to succeed his uncle, Alfred, as ruler of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha. The youthful Duke of Albany which title he then bore was a student at Eton when his uncle died, and was very reluctant to leave school in England and come to Germany. Apparently however he long since became reconciled to his new position. After completing his education at Bonn he took seriously to the duties of rulership and soon won for himself a warm place in the hearts of his subjects.

ROAD CONGRESS.

BRUSSELS July 30.—Twenty-six countries are represented among the hundreds of delegates now in Brussels to attend the Second International Road Congress, the sessions of which are to continue through the coming week. Both the American Road Builders' association and the American automobile association have sent delegates to congress.

RUN WENDLING TO HIS LAIR SAN FRANCISCO

Alleged Murderer of Little Alma Kellner Captured After Chase Leading All Over West

LOUISVILLE DETECTIVE'S WONDERFUL PURSUIT

Man Traced by Means of Only Decent Woman He Associated With.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—Dragged from beneath the wreck of the wash room at a Third Street lodging house, where he had been crouched for 24 hours, Joseph A. Wendling, the accused murderer of Alma Kellner, of Louisville, whose twistings and turnings baffled the police for four months, was arrested by Detectives Hyman and Burke of the local police department.

A few hours after his arrest Captain of Detectives J. P. Carney of Louisville, arrived here to learn that his 11,000 mile search for Wendling had been crowned with success, for it was a final tip from the Kentucky detective that led to the arrest of Wendling.

In relentless pursuit of the supposed murderer, Carney many times lost the trail, but the secret of the whereabouts of his quarry always lay unconsciously with Mrs. Cora Muena, a milliner of Hume, Mo. It was from her home that Carney flashed the information that led to the arrest. It seemed the irony of fate that the only respectable woman connected with Wendling during his wanderings should be the unconscious means of betraying him.

Mrs. Muena met Wendling at the home of his aunt at Houston, Texas, before she returned to her home at Hume and was engaged to the dashing young Frenchman who dazzled her aunt with his tales of foreign estates and wealth in France which would come to him upon the death of his aged father. Before Mrs. Muena left Houston she came to fear Wendling, and after her return to Hume broke off her engagement.

When Carney received the clew that Wendling was working for a grocer at Houston he began a long search in every county seat of Texas. When he reached Houston he found his quarry had fled to San Antonio, where he secured a position on a ranch 22 miles from town. The trip to the ranch was abortive, as the suspect had fled, leaving some effects behind.

Carney lost his track and returned to Houston. From there he sent a decoy letter, ostensibly written by her aunt, asking Mrs. Muena for the address of Henry Jacquemin, the name assumed by Wendling when he left Louisville. The reply was intercepted by Carney and informed him that his prey was in Los Angeles.

The trip to Los Angeles proved futile and he returned to San Antonio, where he found Henry Picard, a friend of Wendling, had received a postal picture from Louisville written in French and postmarked Rio Vista. He abandoned the Texas hunting ground and immediately secured the assistance of the local detective bureau. Accompanied by Detective Conlin, he went to Rio Vista, but the man had down, leaving behind him, however, the name he was working under on the payroll of a company building jetties along the Sacramento River.

Then, with the trail again cold, Carney returned to the Muena home. He reached there just in time to prevent the destruction of a postal card which gave the address of Wendling as Vallejo. Mrs. Muena had destroyed the other correspondence of her whiteoak lover and was on the point of burning the postal when he arrived.

When the address was flashed to San Francisco Burke was at once sent to Vallejo. There Burke found photographs and a complete kit of burglar tools. Further search resulted in the discovery of many articles that had been taken from the residence of Thomas Saunders, which had been burglarized three times. It was formerly occupied by Charles Weidman, for whom Wendling worked as a gardener.

He was soon traced here, but the detectives were thrown off the scent by a strange double who left a suit case in a deserted house on North Beach in the foreign quarter. The suicide of this suspect, two days
